These options are ideal for self-led individuals who want to go from vet, clinic, consultant to BRAND. You're a driven self-starter, but you need feedback and guidance to reach your goals.

- All coaching calls will be held on Zoom audio, optional to join with video!
 - Voxer is an app where we can share voice notes (which can even be transcribed so you can save them!), text message, share docs, etc. I'm available in Voxer on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays, & Fridays unless otherwise communicated.
